The British Question - Can the EU satisfy Cameron's demands?

Lecture by Melanie SULLY

The board of the Austro-British Society (ABS) and the board of the Foreign Policy and United Nations Association of Austria (UNA-AUSTRIA) take pleasure in inviting its members and friends to a lecture on the topical subject of a potentially looming BREXIT:

Wednesday, 18.11.2015, 19:00h

at the Hofburg/Stallburg
1010 Wien, Reitschulgasse 2, 2. Stock

Professor Dr Melanie Sully, editor, writer, consultant and Visiting Professor of Political Science at renowned international universities as well as at the Diplomatic Academy of Vienna is probably one of the best informed experts on Britain within the European Union.

Consultations between the European Commission and senior officials of the British Government have been going on for several months, but were not able to lead to "negotiations" since British Prime Minister Cameron has not yet said what he wants to achieve. Hopefully, things will clear up a bit before our event.

The lecture will be moderated by Dr Alexander Christiani, Vice-President of the ABS. A small reception will follow.

Please register at your earliest convenience, but not later than 10th of November, via the link in the E-Mail.

Once again, registration is on the basis of "first come, first served".
