The Highlights:

Caledonian Pipes and Drums Burgenland

Cornelius
Obonya

Artfolk by Landor

Cornelius Obonya (Burgtheater) reads and sings poems by Robert Burns, in Scots and Viennese, translated by Dieter Berdel.

He is musically accompanied by the Artfolk-Trio Landor (The emotional narratives of Landor are multi-faceted: they deal with socio-political issues, they travel the worlds and they fragment life and love and appeal to humanity. An irresistible passion hovers over everything with its intense poesy and song.)

For the first time we hear the "Address to a Haggis" (flown in directly from Edinburgh!)- the fix point of every Burns Suppers- in Viennese presented by Michael Pichal.

Moderation: Christoph Wellner (Radio Klassik)

Due to severe capacity restrictions this invitation is only for Members. This means unfortunately that Members CANNOT invite Non-Members to accompany them as guests.

By attending this event you expressly agree to the publication of photographs, film and sound recordings taken in the course of that function.
